1. As previously reported by another source [redacted] the Soviet Transport Company, Yushtrans, in Vienna prepared to place this organization in the hands of a civilian administration in October 1946.
2. Yushtrans engages Austrian employees only through the Austrian Labor Office. The employees are strictly supervised and are forbidden to maintain even superficial relations with members of other military powers in Austria.
3. Outside of the Russian head of Yushtrans, Ivan Popov, the following are among those employed by the company:
 - Donnetzhuber: Commercial head
 - Walter Haas : Former officer in the Austrian Lufthansa
 - Moser : Reported to be friendly with Donnetzhuber and the only Austrian in the company not employed through the Austrian Labor Office.
4. A five-man unit of Yushtrans is scheduled to be transferred to the Russian Zone in Germany to establish a branch of the Austrian transport company, Schenker und Co. The branch will be headed by the Russian Lieutenant Volgodarov (previously reported as Bolgodarov). One of his co-workers will be a man called Boeha.
